

HOME / NEWS / INDIA / KERALA

Mar Ivanios College faculty wins Bhashakkoru Dollar award

March 25, 2023 08:31 pm | Updated 08:31 pm IST - THIRUVANANTHAPURAM

THE HINDU BUREAU

COMMENTSSHAREREAD LATER

Praveen Raj R.L.

Praveen Raj R.L., an Assistant Professor (on contract) at the Mar Ivanios College here, has been selected for the 'Bhashakkoru Dollar' prize of 2022, instituted by the University of Kerala and the Federation of Kerala Association in North America (FOKANA) for the best doctoral thesis in Malayalam.

Limited time offer

Make most of your 2nd free article. Get 14-day free trial Or Signup to unlock more articles

FREE TRIAL

Dr. Raj was selected for his dissertation ‘Creativity in Malayalam Criticism–A study based on the works of selected critics’ that he had submitted for his doctoral research in the Malayalam Department of Kerala University. The award comprises a cash award of ₹50000, citation and a plaque.

The jury comprised professors Rajeev V. of the Central University of Kerala; P.S. Radhakrishnan of the School of Letters, Mahatma Gandhi University; and A. Sheelakumari of the Sree Sankaracharya University of Sanskrit.

Higher Education Minister R. Bindu and General Education Minister V. Sivankutty will jointly present the award on March 31.

Get Curated Updates

Sign up for our free newsletters to get in-depth analyses, previews for the day ahead, thoughtful roundups and more.

EXPLORE OUR NEWSLETTERS

COMMENTS

SHARE

Latest News

- 44 mins ago - India

Electoral bond sales for 10 days from April 3
- 1 hour ago - Kerala

Supreme Court to examine how a CJM court in Kerala ‘exceeded jurisdiction’
- 1 hour ago - World

U.S. plans to open embassy in South Pacific island nation of Vanuatu